Patient: Mr. Johnson

Subjective
Chief Complaint: Increasing forgetfulness
History of Present Illness:
Patient reports memory lapses, occasional confusion, and difficulty recalling recent events.
Family reports worsening forgetfulness over the past six months.

Objective
Mental Status Exam:
Alert but disoriented to time and place
Short-term memory impairment noted
Difficulty recalling recent events
No signs of acute distress
Physical Exam:
Normal vital signs
No motor deficits

Assessment
Likely mild-to-moderate dementia (rule out reversible causes)
Differential Diagnoses:
Alzheimer’s disease
Vascular dementia
Metabolic causes

Plan
Diagnostic Plan:
Cognitive assessment (MMSE/MoCA)
Blood work (rule out metabolic causes)
MRI if indicated
Management Plan:
Medication review
Lifestyle recommendations (diet, exercise, cognitive activities)
Caregiver support and education
Follow-up:
Reassess in 4-6 weeks to monitor cognitive changes